Description

Nestled among the wilds of the Jefferson National Forest and the High Knob Recreation Area is a tiny village of weekend and recreational dwellings. A "modern primitive", the structure for sale is a combination of block, brick, concrete, wood, vinyl, and a metal roof. Off-grid living is made easier with propane gas fueling lamps, the refrigerator, wall heater, an on-demand water heater, and cookstove. Electric wiring delivers electricity to outlets for low demand electrical appliances and electronics with electricity sourced from a gasoline/propane generator. Solar panels could be incorporated into the existing electrical wiring system. Filtered rainwater collection tanks provide water for the structure. Cellular signals from Verizon and AT&T networks are available as well as Starlink. Nonattached retro outhouse/privy included on the property.

With elevations reaching over 4,200 feet, multiple outdoor activities such as hiking, biking, horseback trail riding, hunting, fishing, canoeing/kayaking, and rock climbing are available in the area. The property's proximity to popular attractions including Devil's Bathtub waterfall and water pool, High Knob Lake, High Knob Observation Tower, and Flag Rock Recreation Area provide a great location for the outdoor enthusiast. Scott County VA E-911 Services designates the property location to be in Dungannon, VA. USPS can deliver mail from the Coeburn, VA Post Office.
