Description

Centrally located in the West End of Elizabethton, this truly rare 20.4-acre tract offers an exceptional opportunity within the city limits. With access from the existing Mary Patton Highway as well as through Golf Club Acres at Love Street, this property provides both convenience and flexibility for future development.
The rolling, wooded terrain creates a beautiful natural backdrop--ideal for developing a subdivision or building a private estate that offers both seclusion and accessibility. A thorough MLS search will reveal that comparable acreage within the West End of Elizabethton at this price point simply does not exist.
Located just minutes from downtown Elizabethton and in close proximity to Watauga Lake, this property combines location, privacy, and investment potential. The possibilities are extensive, making this a wise opportunity for developers or individuals seeking a premier homesite.
All information and square footage are subject to buyer verification. R# 1910
