Description

5 bedrooms, 4 baths, 2766 sq.ft. one level living on 3.758 surveyed acres near the end of a paved road. Very large kitchen with white quartz counters and lots of cabinets with a dining room attached providing plenty of room for large family gatherings. One of the 3 master suites would be perfect living quarters for elderly parents with a separate entrance. All bedrooms are large. The front foyer and living room are open to the kitchen. A second rear entrance provides direct access to the storage area, large laundry room, and in-law suite. The long, paved driveway has an extra-large parking pad and a turn around. There is a large covered concrete pad in back suitable for carport or covered patio. Just outside the dining room, there is a large wooden deck for family barbeques under the trees. There is a total of 3 storage buildings in back. The home has a freshly painted interior, metal roof, vinyl siding, double pane windows, heat pump and propane fireplace, public water, and private septic which provide year-round comfort. There is also a very large front yard perfect for children and a wooded area behind the back yard providing lots of privacy with endless views of surrounding mountains and the valleys below. This home is perfect for a large family. What more could you ask for?
