Description

Highly motivated sellers--bring your offers!
Escape to your own private East Tennessee retreat! This 3.99-acre unrestricted property, located at 331 Highway 340 South, Parrottsville, TN (Lots 5 & 6) offers the perfect blend of privacy, natural beauty, and build-ready improvements. Surrounded by mature hardwoods, this secluded tract is an ideal setting for your dream home, cabin, barndominium, weekend getaway, or recreational retreat.

The groundwork has already been completed with a passed TDEC soil/perk test for a 2-3 bedroom home, water tap installed, and electricity available via an existing power pole, saving you both time and expense as you prepare to build.

Enjoy exploring your property with a cleared path that extends all the way around the property, along with 4-wheeler trails winding throughout the woods. Two existing driveways provide easy access and flexibility for your future homesite, workshop, RV, or additional parking.

With no known restrictions and no city taxes, you'll have the freedom to build and enjoy the property your way. Whether you're looking for a private homesite, hunting retreat, recreational escape, or investment opportunity, the possibilities are endless.

Conveniently located just a short drive from Newport, Greeneville, and Morristown, you'll also enjoy easy access to many of East Tennessee's most popular attractions, including Douglas Lake, Cherokee National Forest, Great Smoky Mountains National Park, and the shopping, dining, and entertainment of Gatlinburg, Pigeon Forge, and Sevierville.

If you've been searching for a secluded, build-ready property with utilities already in place and easy access to the best of East Tennessee, this one is a must-see!
