Description

Welcome to this charming 3-bedroom, 1-bath home in Big Stone Gap, offering privacy, comfort, and plenty of potential! Situated on a nice yard with a peaceful, private feel, this property has the features buyers are looking for both inside and out.

The unfinished basement provides valuable additional space and endless possibilities--transform it into a media room, man cave, family room, home gym, or whatever fits your lifestyle. A partially finished bathroom area already includes a toilet and has access for a water hookup, offering even more potential for future finished living space.

Outside, enjoy the covered porch, beautiful established perennials, and a gazebo that is perfect for grilling, entertaining, or relaxing with family and friends. The level area in the yard is already set up perfectly for a pool, making summer entertaining even easier. A durable metal roof adds peace of mind, while the combination of privacy, usable yard space, and flexible basement potential makes this home a great opportunity.

If you're looking for a home with charm, outdoor space, privacy, and room to make it your own, this Big Stone Gap property is worth a look!
