Description

Welcome to 190 Mayfield Drive, a charming home in the well-established Mayfield Subdivision of Elizabethton. Situated on a level half-acre lot with a fully fenced backyard, this property offers a wonderful combination of comfortable living, thoughtful updates, and room to enjoy the outdoors. Mature trees, including apple trees, add beauty and character to the property, while the nearly new metal roof provides lasting durability and peace of mind.

The 1,608-square-foot home has been nicely refreshed with new flooring, updated kitchen cabinet fronts, new light fixtures, and a large, recently purchased refrigerator.

Inside, the floor plan includes three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and one half bath. The kitchen, dining area, and living room flow naturally together, providing an inviting space for everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen offers plenty of cabinet and countertop space, and just down the hall from the dining room you'll find a huge pantry—a feature that is sure to be appreciated by anyone who values storage and organization.

One of the home's most appealing features is the sunroom at the rear of the house, where you can enjoy your morning coffee, relax in the evening, or take in views of the backyard. A separate den provides additional versatility and could be used as a home office, family room, hobby area, playroom, or quiet retreat. Step directly from the den onto the covered patio, where you can relax or entertain while enjoying the backyard and Tennessee's changing seasons.

A conveniently located laundry closet adds to the home's functionality, while the two-car attached garage provides covered parking and additional storage. The fully fenced backyard offers plenty of possibilities for gardening, pets, play, entertaining, or simply enjoying the outdoors.

Location adds even more appeal. Hunter Elementary School is just over a mile away, and you'll enjoy easy access to restaurants, shopping, historical sites, and outdoor recreation. An added financial advantage is county-only property taxes.

If you're looking for a home that combines a welcoming neighborhood, thoughtful updates, a spacious fenced yard, versatile living areas, and a convenient location, 190 Mayfield Drive is one you'll want to see.
