Description

Comfortable, versatile, and ready for its next chapter, this three bedroom, two and a half bathroom home delivers the space and flexibility to support everyday living, entertaining, and everything in between. The main level includes all three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a dedicated laundry room, and a welcoming living area centered around a fireplace. Just off the kitchen, the rear deck provides a natural place to enjoy time outdoors while overlooking the property. The partially finished basement expands the possibilities with a half bathroom and flexible space for a second living area, recreation room, home office, or hobbies. A two car garage provides convenient parking and additional storage. The home is also equipped with a water softener, water filtration system, and radon mitigation system. Situated on approximately 0.69 acres, 1580 Pin Oak Drive combines a comfortable main level layout with valuable additional space downstairs and plenty of room outside.
