Description

When just enough space feels just right, this 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom cottage-style home in Kingsport, TN may be worth a closer look. Recently remodeled and featuring a newer HVAC system, this home offers a simple, manageable layout with the flexibility to make the space work for you.

Beyond the house, the property offers something you don't always find with a smaller home... more than 1/4 acre with a large back lawn and a lawn building complete with electricity. Whether you need a workshop, storage, space for lawn equipment, or a place to enjoy your favorite hobbies, there's room to put the property to work for you.

With a convenient Kingsport location in the heart of the Tri-Cities, you're close to the shopping, dining, services, and everyday conveniences that make Northeast Tennessee such a great place to live.

This could be a smart fit for a first-time home buyer, someone looking to simplify, or an investor looking for an affordable Kingsport property with land and useful extras. Come take a look and see if it feels like home.
