Description

Rare unrestricted lot with all utilities already in place! This approximately 0.7-acre property offers a head start on your next home, investment property, or home project.

The property has water and electricity available, plus an existing septic tank and septic approval letter--potentially saving significant time and expense compared with developing raw land. With no HOA and no private restrictions, the property offers excellent flexibility for a mobile home, manufactured home, tiny home, or other permitted residential use.

Located in a quiet East Tennessee setting with infrastructure already in place, this is an excellent opportunity for a buyer seeking an affordable homesite without the added hassle of starting from scratch.
