Description

If you've been looking for land to start a small farm or homestead, this 100-acre property on Roaring Fork Road in Greeneville gives you a place to begin. The land includes open pasture currently used for hay, wooded acreage, a creek, and an outbuilding for farm equipment. Portions of the property have existing fencing, offering a starting point for buyers who are willing to do some upkeep.

The three-bedroom, two-bath manufactured home has an addition with a den just off the main living room. The den features a freestanding gas stove and opens onto the back porch. Off the primary suite, a screened porch overlooks the pasture and woods.

Come walk the land and picture where you'd start.
